BREWERY NAMES NEW PRESIDENT; BARTLETT GONE

No Consideration Given Today to Field's Probe of Books, 'Tis Said

Gustave Schuman, president of the Schuman Carriage Company, Limited, was this morning elected president of the Honolulu Brewing & Malting Company, to succeed C. G. Bartlett, resigned.

Mr. Schuman's election took place at a special meeting of the shareholders, held at 1 o'clock in the brewery office, and was made unanimous, the secretary being instructed to cast a ballot in his favor.

The selection of Mr. Schuman to head the big corporation follows the forced retirement of Mr. Bartlett, who sold his brewery stock after a suit in equity had been started by some of the shareholders, charging misappropriation of funds approximating $22,000. Mr. Bartlett made a partial restitution of the funds alleged to have been missing, and the suit was not pressed.

Mr. Schuman was also made a director of the company this morning, the other officers and directors being Fred Harrison, vice-president; Frank E. Thompson, secretary; William Parke, treasurer; John J. Belser, auditor, and F. R. Greenwell, James Steiner, R. W. Breckons and E. C. Hobron, directors.

The report of H. Gooding Field, the statistical expert who examined the books of the company for the minority stockholders, which report is said to have forced the retirement of Mr. Bartlett, was not considered by either the shareholders or directors at the meetings today, said a man in touch with brewery affairs.

It was reported this week that Bartlett's unannounced sailing for the coast on the Sierra last Saturday may mean his permanent retirement from business in Hawaii and that he is selling his property here.

ST. ANDREW'S DID MUCH WORK IN PAST YEAR

Reports at Annual Meeting of Parish Shows Broader Scope in All Departments

Edmond P. Melanphy was elected secretary, and L. Tenney Peck treasurer, of the St. Andrew's Cathedral parish at the annual meeting Tuesday night in Davies Memorial hall. The meeting was well attended. Rt. Rev. Henry Bond Restarick, bishop of Honolulu, presided.

That the parish is in excellent financial condition was shown in a report presented by Treasurer L. Tenney Peck. An encouraging report regarding the work of the choir was presented by Acting Organist R. Dode, who is taking the place of Reginald Carter. A report of the work among the sick in the parish was made by Mrs. L. F. Folsom, parish visitor.

The total receipts for the year for St. Andrew's guild were $749, as shown in a report presented by Miss Van Shalick. The guild now has 112 members. A report on the work of the Woman's Auxillary was read by Mrs. C. Montague Cooke.

In appreciation of his many years of service, Robert Catton, who intends to leave Honolulu at an early date, was elected Senior Warden Emeritus for life.

Robert Catton, H. M. von Holt, John E. Baird, Guy H. Buttolph and Thomas Sharp were elected delegates to the 13th annual convocation.

UNSTINTED APPLAUSE AT PUPILS' RECITAL

At the recital given last Saturday evening in Charles R. Bishop hall by pupils in the Punahou music school or Miss Cadwell and Miss Sutherland, a most delightful program was presented. The numbers, chosen both for their musical quality and for their variety, gave evidence of the training that the pupils had received. All of those who took part, among whom were a number who were appearing in a school recital for the first time, showed skill in performance, ease at the piano and an ability to interpret musically. The large audience showed its appreciation of the excellence of the program by giving each number unstinted applause.

The hall was attractively decorated, ferns and palms giving a background for touches of pink begonia.
